

A wide-angle photograph of a large suspension bridge, likely the Akashi Kaikyo Bridge, spanning a body of water. The bridge features two tall, white, A-frame pylons connected by thick cables. A large cruise ship is visible in the water beneath the bridge. The sky is filled with soft, grey clouds, and the water reflects the bridge and the sky. The text "WIRATMAN" and "EXPERIENCE OF EXCELLENCE" is overlaid on the left side of the image.
